Commissioner for Patents

Applicant's information disclosure does not comply with 37 CFR 1.97, because applicant failed to pay the fee set forth in section 1.17(p). Contrary to applicant's assertion that no fee is required, because "the information disclosure statement was contained in a communication from a foreign patent office...", 37 FR 1.97(c), (d) and (e) requires: a statement and fees. As such, the information disclosure statement will be placed in the file, but not considered by the office.

The reply brief filed August 23, 2004 has been entered and considered. The application has been forwarded to the Board of Patent Appeals and Interferences for decision on the appeal.
